William Williamson made our 2024 workshop very enjoyable and we are looking forward to having him as our instructor again this year. Scottish Country Dancing has always played a large part in the life of this native of Dumfriesshire, Scotland. A long-time member of the Dumfries Branch of the RSCDS, he has taught at the Society's AGM, Winter School, Summer School and overseas. He taught music at Moffat Academy and was the sole music teacher for schools in the area. He was also music director of the Old Well Theatre in Moffat for thirty years. William is a well-known singer who has recorded several CDs and founded and conducted the Old Well Singers community choir. He lives with his wife Linda, in Amisfield, where they both teach Scottish Country Dancing.

Our musician will again be Andrew Lyon, who, since 2011 has played for all our Workshops except one. We are very pleased to welcome him back again.

Covid and Flu

The Branch will provide hand sanitiser and the room will be well ventilated. Antibacterial wipes will have been used on surfaces.
